

Emmanuelle Diehl
Chief Executive and Managing Partner
Europe Conflict and Security Consulting Ltd.

Emmanuelle is an ECAS Managing Partner and Chief Executive. She has 15 years' experience advising clients operating in conflict areas on human rights, social risks and strategic communication from over 25 fragile and conflict-affected countries in the Middle East, Africa, Central America and South-East Asia. Her networks are particularly strong in Egypt, Libya, Tunisia, Jordan and the UAE as well as in Zimbabwe, Senegal and Myanmar. She brings research and evaluation team leadership experience to any assignment and knowledge of a variety of qualitative and quantitative data collection and analysis tools.

Emmanuelle's clients include UNODC, UNDP, UNHCR, UNPBF, UNITAR, The Egyptian Investment Promotion Agency, the Jordan Investment Board, the Arab League, Rio Tinto Plc, Anglo American, BG Group Plc, Imerys, Mineral San Cristobal, several governmental bodies (West Africa, Indonesia, and Egypt), and Interpol. She has published several country-reports on Egypt, Greece, and Jordan in Newsweek Special Davos Editions, Foreign Policy, and Business Week.

A dual French and American national, Emmanuelle is fluent in English, French, Spanish, and colloquial Egyptian Arabic. She holds two Masters degrees (International Security Studies and International law and public administration) and two BAs (Public and International Law and Foreign Civilizations).